They help us describe nouns — people, places, things, and ideas — by giving more detail about their qualities. Learning common adjectives is a great way to expand your vocabulary and make your sentences more interesting and expressive. What Is an Adjective? An adjective is a word that describes or modifies a noun or pronoun. It tells us what kind, which one, how many, or how much. Examples: She has a beautiful dress. The weather is cold today. He bought three apples. In each sentence, the adjective adds extra information about the noun. Types of Adjectives There are several types of adjectives in English. Understanding these will help you use them more effectively in your sentences. 1. Descriptive Adjectives These describe qualities or characteristics of a noun. Examples: tall, short, happy, blue, delicious The happy child is playing in the garden. 2. Quantitative Adjectives These show how much or how many. Examples: few, many, several, some, much She has many friends. 3. Demonstrative Adjectives These point out specific nouns. Examples: this, that, these, those I like these shoes. 4. Possessive Adjectives These show ownership or possession. Examples: my, your, his, her, its, our, their My brother is a teacher. 5. Interrogative Adjectives These are used to ask questions. Examples: which, what, whose Which color do you prefer? 6. Comparative and Superlative Adjectives These are used to compare things.Examples: Comparative: taller, more beautiful, better Superlative: tallest, most beautiful, best Example Sentences: This car is faster than that one. He is the best player on the team. Common Adjectives Learn common adjective examples in English. He feels happy today. Order of Adjectives When you use more than one adjective, they usually follow a specific order: Opinion → Size → Age → Shape → Color → Origin → Material → Purpose + Noun Example: She bought a beautiful small old round wooden table. Tips for Learning Adjectives Practice describing things around you using adjectives. Learn adjectives in pairs (hot/cold, big/small, easy/difficult). Use adjectives in short sentences to remember their meanings. Read and listen to English stories to see adjectives in real use. Adjectives that Start with S!
