And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.”Philippians 4:13”I can do all things through him who strengthens me.”2 Timothy 1:7”For God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.”Hebrews 11:1”Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.”James 1:2-4”Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.”1 Peter 5:7”Cast all your anxieties on me, because he cares for you.”1 John 4:18”There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love.”Revelation 21:4”He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.”Inspirational Christian Quotes”I believe in Christianity as I believe that the sun has risen: not only because I see it, but because by it I see everything else.” - C. S. Lewis”God does not give us everything we want, but He does fulfill His promises, leading us along the best and straightest paths to Himself.” - Dietrich Bonhoeffer”Our greatest fear should not be of failure but of succeeding at things in life that don't really matter.” - Francis Chan”To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him, the greatest human achievement.” - Saint Augustine”Grace is but Glory begun, and Glory is but Grace perfected.”Jonathan Edwards”If I find in myself nothing in this world can satisfy, my only logic explanation is that I was made for another world.”C.S. Lewis”A Prayer for InspirationDear Heavenly Father, I come before You in humble gratitude for Your unwavering presence in my life. I ask You to imbue me with the divine inspiration that springs from Your infinite wisdom.Let Your Word be a lantern that illuminates my path, guiding my every step. Help me to cling onto Your promises, finding inspiration amidst the trials and challenges I encounter. Strengthen my faith and increase my capacity to love, so that I may reflect Your grace and mercy to those around me.In moments of discouragement, whisper Your truths into my spirit, rekindling the flame of hope. Inspire me to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with You. May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be pleasing to You.Give me the courage to dream the dreams You've dreamt for me, to pursue them with a steadfast heart, anchored in Your love. And when I falter, remind me of Your faithfulness, Your power that works best in my weakness.May I be a beacon of Your light in this world, touching lives with the same inspiration You instill in me. Help me to live each day as a testament to Your goodness, Your grace, and Your glory.In Jesus' name, I pray, Amen. These flashes of insight in the encouraging Scriptures found throughout the Bible give us strength in our most difficult moments. They embolden us to press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called us (Philippians 3:14).Spending time in Gods Word helps us better understand our relationship to our Creator and his creation. We have gathered an encouraging Bible verse from every book of the Bible to inspire you. In these verses youll find motivation to help you love and trust God more profoundly.Inspiration from the PentateuchThe first five books of the Bible have historically been credited to Moses and are called The Pentateuch. The word pentateuch comes from the Greek wordspente(five) andteuchos(book). These five books focus on the creation of the world, and Gods establishment and covenant with his people (the nation of Israel).1.Genesis 1:1In the beginning God created the heavens and the earthThe Bibles very first verse establishes the importance of Scripture. Our entire universe has been created by God, and its Scripture that tells us the story of his relationship with this world and its inhabitantsWhy is this verse inspirational?Even when we believe the truth of this verse, its easy to forget its significance. We are not alone. The God who invites us to walk with him is the same one who formed our solar system. Just stop and think about that. The same being who established the earths seasons and knit your central nervous system together cares immensely about you.2.Exodus 34:6And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.Moses had a profound relationship with God. Scripture tells us that he spoke to God face to face, as one speaks to a friend (Exodus 33:11). When Moses met with God on the mountain to receive the Ten Commandments, God came down in a cloud and spoke these words to him.Why is this verse inspirational?God wants to tell Moses who he is. Its profoundly significant that the first thing he wants Moses to understand is that he is compassionate and gracious. He doesnt start by establishing his power or his wrath. He wants his people to know that he is slow to anger, and abounding in love and faithfulness.3.Leviticus 20:26You are to be holy to me because I, the Lord, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own.The book of Leviticus is full of detailed laws regarding the Israelites day-to-day life. It demonstrates Gods concern for how we live our own lives.Leviticus 20:26communicates why God is so interested in how we live.Why is this verse inspirational?The wordholyliterally means set apart. As God is set apart from his creation, he desires his people to be set apart from the world around them. Sometimes its easy to blend in, but its important to remember that God has called us to value and prioritize things differently than those around us.4.Numbers 23:19God is not human, that he should lie,not a human being, that he should change his mind.Does he speak and then not act?Does he promise and not fulfill?Balaam was a prophet who spoke for God in the book of Numbers. Here he is speaking to Balak, the king of Moab, who has asked Balaam to curse Jacob. Balaam cant do it, because God has already made a promise to Jacob.Why is this verse inspirational?In this exchange with Balak, weve reminded of Gods steadfastness. Gods promises dont have an expiration date, and we dont have to wonder if we can trust in them. If God said he will do it, he will. And that should give us an extraordinary amount of faith.5.Deuteronomy 31:6Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you.God is leading his people into the promised land. The journey is arduous and the obstacles are significant. Here Moses reminds his people that they cant let fear stop them from believing that God will fulfill his promises.Why is this verse inspirational?We all have hurdles, especially when it comes to walking closely with God. We need to be reminded that God is faithful to us even as we struggle to be faithful to him.Inspiration from the Historical NarrativesThe following books of the Bible fall under the category of historical narrative. They tell the continuing story of God and his people.6.Joshua 1:79Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go. Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you after Moses death. Joshua must pick up his mantle and lead Gods people into the promised landan intimidating responsibility for anyone. Here God instructs and encourages Joshua for the task that lies ahead.Why are these verses inspirational?It makes sense that Joshua would be nervous about the future. He needs to trust Godandlead a contentious group of people through dangerous territory. God wants to remind him to keep the main thing the main thing. Focus on obeying me, God tells him, and Ill take care of the obstacles. This is powerful advice we all need to remember.7.Judges 3:9But when they cried out to the Lord, he raised up for them a deliverer, Othniel son of Kenaz, Gales younger brother, who saved them.Judges is a dark book. Israel is undergoing political and religious turmoil, and the tribes of Israel are at war with each other. Gods judgment comes in the form of foreign oppression. But as Israel repents and cries out to God, he raises up judges to save them.Why is this verse inspirational?Israel is suffering because of the bad choices they are making, but even in their disobedience and arrogance, God is listening. When they repent, God delivers them. We, too, find ourselves in troubles that weve created. But that doesnt mean that God has departed from us. When we turn to him, he responds.8.Ruth 1:1718Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the Lord deal with me, be it ever so severely, if even death separates you and me. When Naomi realized that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her. During the time of the judges, theres a significant famine. A woman named Naomi immigrates to Moab with her husband and her two sons. Her sons marry two Moabite women, Ruth and Orpah.Within a couple years of her husband dying, Naomis sons die, too. Shes left with her daughters-in-law. Naomi tells the women to return to their mothers and remarry. Orpah agrees to leave, but Ruth pledges her faithfulness to Naomi with these words.Why are these verses inspirational?God never intended for us to walk through life alone. God has always been about raising up a people who would support each other and bless those around them. Here we see what that looks like. These verses remind us of the importance of support and faithfulness, and to look for Gods provision in our relationships.9.1 Samuel 16:7But the Lord said to Samuel, Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.Saul, Israels first king, is an utter failure. God rejects him and sends his prophet Samuel to anoint the new king he has chosen. Samuel is to go to Bethlehem and invite a man named Jesse to the sacrifice. When Samuel sees Jesses strapping oldest son, Eliab, he thinks hes found Gods anointed. But God tells him otherwise.Why are these verses inspirational?We spend our whole lives judging the world by appearances and having others judge us the same way. And if were honest, we tend to judge ourselves by appearance, too. Its inspiring to remember that God doesnt see things the way that we do. He sees beyond the obvious and encourages us to do the same.10.2 Samuel 7:22How great you are, Sovereign Lord! There is no one like you, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.Through the prophet Nathan, God reminds David that hes taken him from the pasture and appointed him as ruler over Israel. He also informs him that Davids name will be great and the throne of his kingdom will endure forever. This verse comes from Davids prayerful response.Why is this verse inspirational?In a world full of idols, David reminds us that there is no God like the God of Israel. In light of the sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus, we know that to be true in a way that even David couldnt fathom. This world offers us plenty to worship, but nothing compares to the one true God.11.1 Kings 8:2224Then Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven and said: Lord, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth belowyou who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way. You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled itas it is today.Solomon brings the Ark of the Covenant into the completed temple. This is a momentous occasion because the Ark represents Gods presence which will dwell in this holy place. Solomon then begins giving this dedication.Why are these verses inspirational?Throughout the Old Testament, the Israelites are constantly reminded of what God has done for them and the promises he has kept. This builds up their faith and encourages future faithfulness. These verses (and verses like them) are a reminder to us that our relationship with God began centuries ago with the Israelites. His faithfulness to them is part of the story of his devotion to us.12.2 Kings 22:19Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before the Lord when you heard what I have spoken against this place and its peoplethat they would become a curse and be laid wasteand because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I also have heard you, declares the Lord.Josiah becomes king at eight years old, but unlike his dad and grandfather, hes a good ruler. During the eighteenth year of his reign, he instructs repairs be made to the temple. When a book of the Law is found and read to Josiah, it becomes obvious just how far Israel has strayed from God. In anguish, Josiah tears his clothes.In a discussion with a prophetess named Huldah, Josiah is told that God intends to visit his wrath upon Israel for its sins, but then he promises mercy to Josiah because hes humbled himself before the Lord.Why is this verse inspirational?The mercy Josiah experiences is in response to his distress at how far Israel has fallen from God. Josiah doesnt call down curses on Israel, but as a part of Gods people, he hurts for how far from God the nation has fallen. God pays attention to us as we express heartache for how far we have drifted from him.13.1 Chronicles 22:13Then you will have success if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws that the Lord gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged.As the preparation is being made for the building of the temple, David calls his son and successor, Solomon, to his side to remind him of the importance of faithfulness.Why is this verse inspirational?Throughout Scripture, two of the messages that people receive most often are be faithful and dont be afraid. Here we see these instructions again. The verse reminds us that if we are doing our best to be faithful to God, we have nothing to fear.14.2 Chronicles 7:14If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. After the temple is completed and dedicated, God appears to Solomon with these words.Why is this verse inspirational?Despite the fact that God is speaking to Solomon about the nation of Israel, these are instructions that we can take to heart. God pays special attention to his people. Their posture to their sin (and the sin around them) has a profound impact on him. This verse should inspire us to regularly humble ourselves, turn from our wickedness, and seek his face.15.Ezra 10:4Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it.Ezra was a Jewish priest and scribe who was integral to Israel returning from captivity to rebuild Jerusalem and the temple. As Ezra laments Israels sin, he is approached by a descendant of Elam named Shekariah. This man confesses Israels sin to Ezra and encourages Ezra to take things right and keep the law.Why is this verse inspirational?When you want to follow God, its easy to look at the obstacles and lose heart. Its critical that we take Shekariah's words to heart. Discover Gods will, look for the people who support you, take courage, and do it.16.Nehemiah 8:10Nehemiah said, Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.Along with Ezra, Nehemiah oversaw the rebuilding of Jerusalem. In the eighth chapter of Nehemiah, Ezra reads from the book of the Law. As the people listen, they begin to mourn over how far theyve drifted. Nehemiah encourages them not to mourn, but to celebrate. Gods about to do something amazing.Why is this verse inspirational?Repentance is hard work, but its also joyful. On one side youre heartbroken over your sin, but on the other, its the gateway to a renewed relationship with God. Its essential to allow ourselves to feel the sadness of repentance, but we cant wallow therebecause, on the other side of repentance, God is waiting to do amazing things!17.Esther 4:14For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your fathers family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?The Persian king Ahasuerus is under the influence of Haman, a terrible counselor. Because of a perceived slight from a Jewish man named Mordecai, Haman decides to convince Ahasuerus to rid Persia of every Jew.At the same time, the king is looking for a new queen, and falls for an attractive woman named Esther (Mordecais cousin). Mordecai encourages Esther to use her influence to save her people.Why is this verse inspirational?No situation is outside of Gods purview. This verse reminds us that there are times when our placement in a difficult situation is part of Gods plan to remedy the problem.Inspiration from the Wisdom LiteratureThe Bibles wisdom literature emphasizes the importance of seeking good judgment and common sense so that we can have a right relationship with Godand each other.18.Job 19:2527I know that my redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand on the earth.And after my skin has been destroyed,yet in my flesh I will see God:I myself will see himwith my own eyesI, and not another.How my heart yearns within melts hard not to feel sorry for Job. Used as a tool of the devil to prove that the most God-fearing man on earth is only faithful because of Gods blessing, Job has everything of value taken from him. He loses his children, his wealth, and eventually his health. The book primarily deals with Job and his friends struggle to understand why this is happening.Why are these verses inspirational?In Jobs pain and frustration, he remains steadfast. When he passes from this world, he is assured that he will stand before God. This kind of faith should motivate us to look beyond our momentary struggles to embrace an eternal hope.19.Proverbs 18:10The name of the Lord is a fortified tower;the righteous run to it and are safe.Proverbs is a collection of sayings and aphorisms that are concerned with the development of a godly character. In it, youll find tons of practical advice, reminders, and admonitions to help you grow in godliness.Why is this verse inspirational?We all need to feel secure. When things get tough, its easy to look for security in things and people around us. Its important to remember that the Lord is our first, and greatest, defense.20.Ecclesiastes 12:13Now all has been heard;here is the conclusion of the matter:Fear God and keep his commandments,for this is the duty of all mankind.
