Cast & crewUser reviewsTrivia A path breaking and face changing of Punjabi cinema - must watch for masala move buffsLet's talk about first thing first, the background score, script execution and the climax is the highlight of this story. The movie starts with Jatt Ambarsariya (Diljit Dosanjh) sitting on a manjee (typical North Indian cot/seater) narrating his story to a Dhaba (Motel) owner (Karamjit Anmol) and his Dhaba (Motel) staff and also briefly joined by an SHO Punjab Police (Binnu Dhillon). Diljit tells about his adventure as an undercover agent posing as an insurance agent and his encounters with three women while on a secret government mission. While all are betting on whom Jatt Ambarsariya will choose/has chosen as his girlfriend out of the three ladies, Ambarsariya has different intentions altogether. There are only two songs in this movie and both are amazing to listen to. Ambarsariya is one of a kind movie made in Punjabi cinema, never seen before, the script is well executed although the story falls loose in the middle, this is however over-shadowed by Diljit's acting skills and ability to deliver one-liners with perfect timing. The background score of this movie gets full marks. The movie goes in flashback and returns briefly at regular intervals which is also timed well. The climax scene steals the show. Overall this is a very good movie to watch.See detailed box office info on IMDbProSuggest an edit or add missing contentBy what name was Ambarsariya (2016) officially released in Canada in English?AnswerYou have no recently viewed pages LyricsGali Mein Maare Phere Paas Aane Ko Mere Gali Mein Maare Phere Paas Aane Ko Mere Kabhi Parakhta Nain Mere Tu Kabhi Parakhta Tor Kabhi Parakhta Nain Mere Tu Kabhi Parakhta Tor Ambarsariya Mundave Kachiya Kalyaan Na Tod Ambarsariya Mundave Kachiya Kalyaan Na Tod Teri Maan Ne Bole Hain Mujhe Teekhe Se Bol Teri Maan Ne Bole Hain Mujhe Teekhe Se Bol Ambarsariya..
